Hon. William H. English died yesterday afternoon at 12:35 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks, although his condition was not considered serious until within the last ten days. For six weeks Mr. English has not been well, but even as late as the last day his friends had hopes that his strong and rugged constitution would overcome the ravages of disease. A complication of influenza, inflammatory rheumatism and constitutional heart trouble, however, was too much for even a man of his strength. This combination later developed into an aneurism, which was the final cause of death. Death occurred in the apartment that has been occupied by Mr. English for several years, on the second floor of English's Hotel, over the corner of Meridian street and Monument place.

Although Mr. English's condition had been considered very serious for several days, there was nothing to indicate that death was so near until Thursday night, when his condition rapidly became worse, and it was then seen that a few hours would be the extent of his life. Mrs. Rosalind English, his daughter, was sitting by his bedside and a telegram was sent to her husband, Dr. Wm. H. English, who arrived yesterday morning. A consultation of physicians was held and it was decided to notify those interested that nothing more could be done for the sick man and that a few hours would be the extent of his life. General Canella attacked and had a battle with the numerous band under Maceo, Delgado Nunez and Sotomayor, and the forces of Bermudez. The artillery opened fire on the insurgents, who were forced to retreat. The troops reported five killed and four officers and forty-eight soldiers and volunteers wounded. The column of General Canella is marching to San Cristobal.

Despatches received from Santiago de Cuba are of a more reassuring nature than for some time past. They state that the insurgents are not making any efforts of importance in that part of the island. It is reported that Gen. Maximo Gomez is going to establish a seat of government at Sagua, where the insurgents are now. He is expected to arrive there in a few days. The insurgents are now in the province of Pinar del Rio, but up to the present time they have not been able to pass it.

Seneca "La Muerte," a well-known Indian, has been killed in an engagement. General Weyler has left Porto Rico for Havana. Pando has arrived here with his family and with eleven political prisoners, among them Dr. Jose Maceo and his son. All have been imprisoned in Morro castle. It is reported that the insurgents are now in the province of Pinar del Rio, but up to the present time they have not been able to pass it.
